

Further consolidation of network ownership will only place the freedom and diversity of publication broadcasting further under corporation dominance. This is already evident in programming changes witnessed over the past several years. Please keep the airwaves open.